FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ObamaMania sweeps across America with the presence of U.S. Senator Barack Obama. The Junior Senator from Illinois, who has recently achieved a political rock star status, has become a key component in the Democratic Party's bid and a viable threat to the current field of seasoned candidates for the White House in 2008. Recently he announced that he might be considering a run for the Presidency. Thousands of Americans looking for a fresh face and alternative to the usual pack of democrats have begun the chant, "RunBarackRun!"

Leading the charge is a new grass-roots campaign website aimed at encouraging the Senator to run by obtaining 1,000,000 online petition signatures, providing a blog, links to Obama related stories, videos and even Obama related souvenir merchandise and books, with portion of the proceeds going to the Obama campaign.

People for Barack Obama.com – www.peopleforobama.com - was developed to show support for the candidacy of Barack Obama for President. Its' creator hopes it will be a point of reference for American voters who would like to see Barack Obama not only run, but succeed in becoming the 44th President of the United States.

Democrats across America are particularly asked to support this drive by signing and circulating the online petition and website among eligible voters and alike. Let's show that the Democratic Party can make a difference in the presidential elections. So support this cause our site and the candidacy of Barack Obama for President in 08.
